Matthew 4:18-21

We Do Life Together

Discipleship takes place in the living room more than in the classroom and in the streets more than in the sanctuary.

How much time do I even spend in my "living" room? How evident is God in this place?

As I travel the roads of Nelson, or experience the roads of Lynchburg/Charlottesville/etc., do I recognize and respond to the calling of Christ in these places?

All ministry and no play lends itself to sterile relationships, while working and playing together adds depth.

Where does God need/want more control of my work day?

How does it change things if I invite Jesus along on an outing with my buddies?
