The Fifth Sunday

July 31, 2016

- 9:30 Unity in Worship
- 10:30 Service for the Common Good
- 11:30 Breaking Bread Together

For our first Fifth Sunday, our service project will be our own campus. We are blessed with a lovely, debt-free facility provided to us by past generations. It is only appropriate that we honor this legacy through continued good stewardship. Please help us identify those areas that need attention in the building or on the grounds by listing them below and dropping it in the offering plate. We want everyone to have a job that day - children to seniors, so be imaginative in your thinking-everything from cleaning to repairs to improvements.

Set Free to Serve

Galatians 5:1, 5:13-18

1 It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery.

13 You, my brothers and sisters, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the flesh; rather, serve one another humbly in love. 14 For the entire law is fulfilled in keeping this one command: "Love your neighbor as yourself." 15 If you bite and devour each other, watch out or you will be destroyed by each other.

16 So I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. 17 For the flesh desires what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit what is contrary to the flesh. They are in conflict with each other, so that you are not to do whatever you want. 18 But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

Are you free?

How do you use your freedom?

We were Set Free to Serve

What does the Spirit have to do with it?

2 Corinthians 3:17

Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.
