

Youth...

The wise writer once stated, “There is a time for everything — for every activity under heaven.”

A time for birth and a time for death.

A time for construction and a time for destruction.

A time for laughter and a time for tears.

A time for hello and a time for goodbye.

A time for holding on and a time for letting go.

God makes everything beautiful in its time.

Kairos is about time. Not the tick-tock kind of time we are used to living in. Kairos is the beautiful kind of time where God breaks in and changes everything. These are moments when something special happens. They are moments that interrupt our status quo. They are moments when the trajectory of our journeys change forever. When God breaks in, we must take the change He creates — whatever it may be. We must accept both the work of Christ and the way of Christ. We must trust in what God is doing instead of trying to do it ourselves. And then we must step out in faith and believe that God’s goodness will come in time.

In this series, we will set aside tick-tock time to engage God intentionally and expect him to break into our lives in timeless ways. We’ll be inspired and disturbed. We’ll be encouraged and challenged. We’ll be loved and changed.

The moment is upon us. Don’t you think it’s about time?
